Wherein Augustine shows that Pelagius really differs in no respect, on the question of original sin and the baptism of infants, from his follower Cœlestius, who, refusing to acknowledge original sin and even daring to deny the doctrine in public, was condemned in trials before the bishops—first at Carthage, and afterwards at Rome; for this question is not, as these heretics would have it

Sin and Grace - How grace deals with sin - Simply Bible

Sin and Grace —Understanding how grace deals with sin. Before Jesus died on the cross, there was "a reminder of sins year by year" (Hebrews 10:1-4). Now, in the Lord Jesus Christ, there is "no condemnation" (Romans 8:1). If we are in Christ, God has forgiven us our iniquities, and our sins he "will remember no more" (Jeremiah 31:34). The forgiveness of sins means our condemnation for sins

Original Sin shows that we sin because we are sinners, entering this world with a corrupt nature and without hope apart from the saving grace of God in the gospel. Summary Original Sin teaches that all mankind is joined to Adam in both the guilt and the corruption of his first sin.
Original Grace or Original Sin? Romans 5:12-21 (107) — DT
Original sin is the belief and teaching that all babies are born sinners and are born depraved. The extent of this depravity at birth – either partial or total – is also a major distinction among denominations. Some believe babies are born only partially depraved and retain a certain ability to respond to God’s grace ...

Original Sin or Original Grace? | Hacking Christianity
Aug 12, 2009 · Original Sin or Original Grace? We often point to the story of Adam and Eve in Genesis 3 as The Fall or The Original Sin which explains a level of theodicy: how a benevolent God would make us live in our own personal hells. It goes like this: God made the world good and we screwed up. God kicked us out of Eden in retribution for the original sin .
