The Gringos Annotated

The Gringos (Annotated) - B. M. Bower 2019-03-23 A story of love and adventure set in a rural California. Pretty cool story! You liked that the book set in California and had to do with the United States and Spanish hospitality and local ownership. Different than the whole, but still a good story.

The Gringos "Annotated" - Berta Muny Bower 2020-12-27 A Story of the Old California Days in 1849. If you could glimpse the range which normally lies unseen, thank God, in most of us, you have only to do the thing of which I shall tell you. From some side sanctuary where leaders couriers may not hear prematurely the tidings of man’s delusion, watch the world below. You may see civilization using back with a snap to supermen and worse - because supermen enlighten by the civilization of emirates is a deadly thing to let loose among men. Our Savage Frontiers were but superior animals groping laboriously after economic security and a social condition that would find most gladly the fruit of all the world’s desires; today, when we swing back to something akin to savagery, we do it for lust of gain, like our forefathers, but we do it with a will.
